

Round Table Discussion with Experts “Impact of Rapid RBC Genotyping in Patient Care”

Gregory Denomme, PhD, FCSMLS(D) Versiti – Milwaukee, WI. Integrating molecular immunohematology into routine patient care.

Margaret A. Keller, PhD American Red Cross – Philadelphia, PA. High throughput genotyping of African descent blood donors to meet the needs of alloimmunized patients.

Christoph Gassner, PhD, PD Zurich, Switzerland. Two Prevalent ~100 kb GYPB Deletions Causative of the GYPB Deficient Blood Group MNS Phenotype S-s-U- in Black Africans.

Monday, October 21, 2019

Breakfast Reception: 06:30 AM

Session: 07:00 – 08:15 AM

Henry B. Gonzales Convention Center Room 217

Register: www.inno-train.com/news/congress/aabb/

FluoGene Workflow

The content of this event was developed independently from the official continuing education program at the 2019 Annual Meeting. AABB does not provide continuing education (CE) or continuing medical education (CME) credit for these educational activities. Opinions expressed during these events are those of the faculty and are not necessarily a reflection of AABB's opinions, nor are they supported, sponsored or endorsed by AABB.